

MEDEA Moving Images in Education European Awards 2008

Producers, teachers, academics, support staff, students and anyone who produces audiovisual media to support learning, are invited to submit their materials to the MEDEA awards competition.

The MEDEA awards will recognise and promote innovation and good practice in the use of digital moving images and sound in education, as well as excellence in the production and pedagogical design of media-rich learning resources.

These awards are open to anyone working with or in European education at all levels. The 1st MEDEA Awards Ceremony will take place during Online Educa Berlin 2008.

For more information and to submit media: www.medeia-awards.com

